"A jolly, rollicking narrative of adventure and sport, mixed up with a great deal of useful information concerning one of the most interesting regions in the American continent."—Yours.
"There has not for a long time appeared a better book of travel than this. It is full of clever observation, and both narrative and illustrations are thoroughly good."—Athenaeum.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait, 9s.
JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHREN:
A Dramatic Poem. By CHARLES WELLS.
With Vignette Portrait and an Introductory Essay by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.
"In its combination of strength and delicacy, in sweet liquid musical flow, in just cadence, and in dramatic incisiveness of utterance, the language throughout keeps closer to the level of the Elizabethan dramatists than that of any dramatist of subsequent times. . . . Mr. Swinburne does not praise the character of Pharaoh over much when he places it only behind the Cleopatra of Shakespeare, and adds that all women in literature after these two seem coarse or trivial when they touch on anything sensual. . . . A poet has been saved from oblivion, and the present and future generations will be richer by a work they could ill afford to lose."—Athenaeum.

VICTORIAN POETS: Critical Essays.

By EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN.
"Mr. Stedman has undertaken a wide subject, and has treated it with great ability and competent knowledge. When we differ from his judgment, we are forced to respect it, and we may add that his volume, although one of pure criticism, is likely to attract all readers who regard poetry as something better than an idle trade. . . . Mr. Stedman has treated a subject of great interest in a manner which is as attractive to the reader as it is just to the poets whom he has undertaken to criticise."—Spectator.

2 vols. 8vo, cloth extra, price 36s.
HAYDON'S CORRESPONDENCE and TABLE-TALK.
WITH A MEMOIR BY HIS SON,
And 23 Illustrations.

"The volumes are among the most interesting produced or likely to be produced by the present season."—Examiner.
"One of the most moving histories that has been published in modern days. Haydon's case has never before been fairly laid before the public; the man has never been shown as he was in truth, through the medium of his correspondence, his diaries, his sayings, and actions. Charming correspondence, and still more charming table-talk."—Morning Post.

MR. SWINBURNE'S NEW POEM.
SECOND EDITION. Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 6s.
EREC THEUS.
By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.
"Matured thought and ripened power are brought to the task of reclothing old fables. . . . Our extracts, copious as they are, fail to convey an idea of the sustained strength and beauty of the entire work, which we are inclined to rank as Mr. Swinburne's masterpiece."—Athenaeum.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 7s. 6d.
SWIFT'S CHOICE WORKS,
IN PROSE AND VERSE.
With Memoir, Portrait, and Illustrations.

W. S. GILBERT.—Crown 8vo, cloth extra, 9s.
ORIGINAL PLAYS BY W. S. Gilbert.
"A Wicked World," "Charity," "Palace of Truth," "Pygmalion," "Trial by Jury," &c.
"His workmanship is in its way perfect; it is very sound, very even, very well sustained, and excellently balanced throughout."—Observer.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Vignette Portrait, price 9s.
LANAN BLANCHARD'S POETICAL WORKS.

Edited, with a Memoir, by BLANCHARD JERROLD.
"His humorous verse is much of it admirable—sparkling with genuine esprit, and as polished and pointed as Prædica."—Scotsman.

Small 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.
KING ERIK: a Tragedy.
By EDMUND W. GOSSE. With a Vignette by W. B. SCOTT.
"The author's book, 'On Viol and Flute,' displayed such a remarkable ear for music, such a singular poetic interpretation of flowers and trees, and such-like children of Flora, and, above all, such a distinct and individual poetic savour, that it would have been a pity indeed had these good gifts been wasted in any wrong direction. In this case there is happily no cause for such pity. We have seldom seen such a marked advance in a second book beyond a first. . . . The faults of 'King Erik' are but slight matters; its merits are solid, and of a very high order."—Academy.

WESTLAND MARSTON'S WORKS.
2 vols. crown 8vo, price 18s.
WESTLAND MARSTON'S
DRAMATIC and POETICAL WORKS.

COLLECTED LIBRARY EDITION.
"The Patrician's Daughter is an oasis in the desert of modern dramatic literature, a real emanation of mind. We do not recollect any modern work in which states of thought are so freely developed except the Torquato Tasso of Goethe. The play is a work of art in the same sense that a play of Sophocles is a work of art; it is one simple idea in a state of gradual development."—Times.

Demy 8vo, half-morocco Roxburgh, 51s.
BIBLIOMANIA; or, Book-Madness:
A Bibliographical Romance.

By THOMAS FRONAL DEDDIN.
With numerous Illustrations. A New Edition, with a Supplement, containing a Key to the Assumed Characters in the Drama.
A few Large Paper copies, Roxburgh binding, price 42s.

Small 8vo, Roxburgh binding, price 10s. 6d.
THE FIRST EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE, 1623.

An exact reproduction of the rare original, in reduced facsimile, by a photographic process.
With an Introduction by J. O. HALLIWELL PHILLIPS, Esq.
"To Messrs. Chatto and Windus belongs the merit of having done more to facilitate the critical study of the text of our great dramatist than all the Shakespeare clubs and societies put together. A complete facsimile of the celebrated first folio edition of 1623 for half-a-guinea is at once a miracle of cheapness and enterprise. Being in a reduced form, the type is necessarily rather diminutive, but it is as distinct as in a genuine copy of the original, and will be found to be as useful and far more handy to the student than the latter."—Athenaeum.

CHATTO & WINDUS, PICCADILLY, W.

CHATTO & WINDUS, PUBLISHERS.

SECOND EDITION OF MR. EMERSON'S NEW WORK.
Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 7s. 6d.
LETTERS and SOCIAL AIMS.

By RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
"It makes a pleasant companion to the volume he gave us a few years ago under the name of 'Society and Solitude,' and stands pretty much on the same footing. The enthusiastic and almost mystical ardour of his earlier essays is softened into a more genial and equable warmth; but if he sometimes walks where he would once have soared, his path falls not to be illuminated by the same bright and far-reaching imagination as of old."—Saturday Review.

Now ready, demy 8vo, cloth extra, with Maps and numerous Illustrations, 18s.
YACHTING in the ARCTIC SEAS:
Or, Notes of Five Voyages of Sport and Discovery in the Neighbourhood of Spitzbergen and Novaya Zemlya. By JAMES LAMONT, F.G.S., F.R.G.S., Author of "Seasons with the Sea-Horses." With numerous full-page Illustrations, by WILLIAM LIVESAY, M.D.
"After wading through numberless volumes of key fiction, concocted narrative, and spurious biography of Arctic voyagers, it is pleasant to meet with a real and genuine volume. . . . He shows much tact in recounting his adventures, and they are so interspersed with anecdotes and information as to make them anything but wearisome. . . . The book, as a whole, is the most important addition made to our Arctic literature for a long time."—Athenaeum.

In 1 vol. crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait and Facsimiles, 12s. 6d.
THE FINAL RELIQUES OF FATHER PROUT.

Collected and Edited by BLANCHARD JERROLD.
"We heartily commend this handsome volume to all lovers of sound wit, genuine humour, and manly sense."—Spectator.
"It is well that the present long-delayed volume should remind a younger generation of his fame. . . . The charming letters from Paris, Florence, and Rome. . . . are the most perfect specimens of what a foreign correspondence ought to be."—Academy.

 tics, heat, light, magnetism, and electricity; and the treatment is entirely free from mathematical formulae. The engravings of the instruments and of the experiments detailed are good and suggestive, and calculated to be of assistance not only to the learner but to the teacher."

THE SOUTHERN STATES OF NORTH AMERICA:

An Illustrated Record of an extensive Tour of Observation during the years 1873-4, through what were formerly the Slave States of North America.

By EDWARD KING.

With Maps and 536 Engravings on Wood from Original Sketches, by J. WELLS CHAMPNEY.

ACADEMY.

"We can have no hesitation in saying that this is one of the best, if indeed, it be not the very best, book on the Southern States that has appeared since the civil war. . . . The engravings which illustrate the text on almost every page are with few exceptions good, and, contrary to one's experience of illustrated books, they improve towards the end. Some few are really of a high order."

SPECTATOR.

"Grave and gay are mingled throughout the volume with admirable skill. . . . It is idle to attempt even to give an idea of the contents of this book, with its eight hundred closely printed pages, and its striking illustrations nearly as numerous. If you want facts, political or commercial, or bright sketches of social life, or graphic descriptions of nature in the Southern States, you cannot do better than go to this work for them."

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"It would not now be possible to find in any book published in England wood engravings of the same minuteness, precision, and beauty as are here to be seen on every page."

ANGLO-AMERICAN TIMES.

"All who desire to be fully acquainted with the present condition of the Southern States could nowhere else find an authority so exhaustive, descriptive, and reliable."

"This charming volume. . . . It is difficult to know whether to give the palm to the writer or the artist, whose joint labour has produced this volume, but each has done his work excellently well."

NOTES AND QUERIES.

"So beautiful a book of travel and of the incidents of such wayfaring and sojourning in America has never hitherto been published. There is probably no book existing on the same subject that affords so much amusement and adds so much to previous knowledge as this."

In 2 vols. large 4to, cloth extra, gilt edges, 42s.

TRAVELS IN SOUTH AMERICA.

FROM THE PACIFIC TO THE ATLANTIC OCEAN.

By PAUL MARCOY.

Illustrated by 525 Engravings on Wood, of which Fifty-four are full page (measuring 8½ by 6½ inches), and Ten Maps, from Drawings by the Author.

TIMES.

"M. Marcoy sketches nearly everything which he describes, and gives us hundreds of pictures of the life, manners, and scenery which come under his eye. Such a book is a treat which the English reader does not often get. . . . If the British public will not believe that there is more sound instruction in such a work as this than in a geographic manual, and more amusement than in a novel, we can only say, let him alone."

STANDARD.

"Never has there been given to the world such a picture of South America."

DAILY NEWS.

"More is to be learned about South America from a perusal of these pages and a study of these illustrations than from an examination of the library richest in books of travel."

SPECTATOR.

"M. Marcoy is one of the most entertaining of travellers. Anything more vivid and amusing than his descriptions of life and manners could not easily be found."

SATURDAY REVIEW.

"M. Marcoy's splendid record of a recent journey from the Pacific to the Atlantic, through the whole breadth of Peru and Brazil, is a work which must be seen in order to be appreciated. . . . The result of his ardent and philosophical pursuit of knowledge and adventure is to enrich our literature with a mass of matter imperfectly, if at all, accessible heretofore, embodied, too, in a form suited in a peculiar degree to attract and even fascinate every reader who is susceptible of the impressions of art."

BOOKS.

The SELF-MADE MAN: an Autobiography.

By K. F. VON KLODEN. Edited, with a Sketch of his After-Life, by MAX JAHN. Translated by A. M. CHRISTIE. Vol. I. demy 8vo. with Portrait, price 14s.

The Saturday Review, in a recent notice of the German Edition of this Work, thus speaks of it:—"We are much mistaken if this autobiography does not take rank as a classic. It is a masterpiece of ingenious self-portraiture and graphic narrative. In its warmth and simplicity, it reminds us of Mr. Smiles's 'Life of Stephenson,' with the zest of autobiography superadded."

"A most fascinating book."—SAMUEL SMILES in Evening Hours.

Vol. II., completing the Work, will be published shortly.

The LORD'S PRAYER: A Course of Sermons Preached in the Temple Church.

By C. J. VAUGHAN, D.D., Master of the Temple. In small 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

The WISE WOMAN. By George Macdonald,

Author of "Alec Forbes," "David Elginbrod," &c. Post 8vo, cloth, 10s. 6d.

"We breathe in 'The Wise Woman' the clear, bracing, almost intoxicatingly purely moral atmosphere which we remember so well in 'Phantastes.' . . . This parable shows Mr. Macdonald to us as he is when he is most individual, most truly himself; and it is likely to be held very precious by the crowd of admirers and disciples which this charming writer has gathered around him."—Liverpool Albion.

"It is as beautiful and finished a work as we have ever had from Mr. Macdonald."—Graphic.

"It is told in language so strikingly simple that it may be read with benefit by the merest child; yet it is pregnant with truths which may be pondered with profit by those of maturest years."—Glasgow Herald.

"A very pleasing and instructive book."—Guardian.

POEMS. By Emily Pfeiffer, Author of

"Gerald's Monument." Fcap. 8vo, cloth extra, 6s.

"Mrs. Pfeiffer's best poems are her sonnets. . . . Some of these are, to our minds, among the finest sonnets in the language. . . . There are flights of true imagination, of which almost the greatest of English sonnet-writers might, and possibly would, have been proud."

"There is scarcely a poem in the volume which is not full of beauties of thought and expression, and some are masterpieces of lyric poetry."—Scotsman.

TENTH THOUSAND, WITH A NEW PREFACE.

The DEVIL'S CHAIN. By Edward Jenkins,

M.P., Author of "Ginx's Baby." Small 8vo, cloth extra, price 5s.

"It is like the sermon of a vigorous revivalist, and it is certainly not easy to read it without being roused. It is the work of an enthusiast, but then enthusiasts move the world."—Spectator.

"The Devil's Chain" is a most telling collection of drink incidents, cleverly forged together into a connected tale. . . . The links here woven into a chain make altogether one of the most appalling stories we have ever read."—Guardian.

"This powerful and well-sustained story contains ample evidence of being the work of a man of genius."—Scotsman.

"This book outvies in interest the most sensational of novels, and is sure to be widely read both in Britain and in America."—Dundee Advertiser.

"In 'The Devil's Chain' Mr. Jenkins has given another illustration of the originality of his genius, as well as of his courage as a reformer. He has undertaken to unmask and to assail the demon of strong drink, and the result is the most powerful contribution which has yet been made to the literature of the temperance party."—Nonconformist.

"See the drastic and didactic temperance novel by Edward Jenkins, M.P. for Dundee."—Punch.

The MIDLAND RAILWAY: its Rise and Progress. A Narrative of Modern Enterprise. By FREDERICK S. WILLIAMS. In demy 8vo, cloth, with 7 Maps and 122 Illustrations, 20s.

"The book is a monument of conscientious, painstaking, literary labour."—Salisbury Journal.

"We can conscientiously recommend it."—Nottingham Journal.
